

DOYLESTOWN THYROID AND ENDOCRINE ASSOCIATES

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

YOUR RIGHTS

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record

-You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical records and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
-We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your medical record

-You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
-We may say no to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days

Request confidential communications

-You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home, office or cell phone) or to send mail to a different address.
-We will say yes to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

-You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say no if it would affect your care.
-If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say yes unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we've shared information

-You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
-We will include all the disclosures for those about treatment, payment and healthcare operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting per year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

-You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

-If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
-We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

-You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting our Privacy Officer at 103 Progress Drive, Suite 300, Doylestown, PA 18901 or 215-447-3630
-You can file a complaint with the DHHS Office of Civil Rights. Visit www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints.
-We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

YOUR CHOICES

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

-Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care.
-Share information in a disaster relief situation.
-Include your information in a hospital directory.

If you are not able to tell us your preference (for example, if you are unconscious) we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases, we never share your information unless you give us written permission

-Marketing purposes
-Sale of your information
-Most sharing of psychotherapy notes
